

This term, used here, doesn't refer to alcohol-related blackouts.

It refers to quick, short losses of consciousness when I was experiencing neurological problems many years ago.

These problems were resolved by Dr. Trevor Berry, the only neurologist, including Mayo, who knew what it was, what was causing it and how to repair it.